SPRINGDALE.

Professor P. M. Garrett of Lewis county visited his many friends here this week.

Miss Clara Degman returned Wednesday from a week's visit to friends at Sand Hill.

Jake Trumbo and his sister Miss Sue are visiting relatives in Lewis county this week.

Frank Cobb has purchased the farm owned by L. T. Cole near Reeterville, also the adjoining farm owned by Eliza J. Cole.

Lena, the three-year-old daughter of Richard and Parthenia McGowan died on Monday of inflammation of the bowels.

The work on our schoolhouse is progressing with the same energy and rapidity that characterizes all the public works engaged in by our board of trustees.

Charles Hotze is visiting relatives and friends here after an absence of twenty years, during which time he has largely aided the wilderness to blossom as the rose. He is one of the pioneers of Indiana, Red Willow county, Neb.

He reached here in the spring of '73 with his team, farm implements and a very little cash. He now owns property valued at several thousands of dollars. Like most of the old soldiers here is a good Republican and grieves over the way his adopted state showed up in the late election and blames the third party for it.

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR; Blue—RAIN or SNOW; With Blue above—TWILY WARMER STORM. If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'TILL BE! Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

WILLIAM BOWLING has been acquitted of the murder of Harry F. Dent at Louisville.

The first of the new World's Fair half-dollar souvenirs has been turned out at the United States mint at Philadelphia. The work of coining the remainder of the $5,000,000 will be continued, but will not be finished, it is thought, until about the opening of the Exposition next May.

The Emerson Piano.

The Emerson Piano Company of Boston, Mass., and 92 Fifth Avenue, New York, have had a long and successful experience in the manufacture of pianos, and have attained an enviable reputation. These pianos are of the very finest tone and of the best material and workmanship, and are sold at moderate prices and on reasonable terms. As a general thing, a person buys a piano but once in a lifetime, and it is, therefore, very important that the instrument should combine as many desirable features of a permanent character as possible. Manufacturers of good reputation and of long standing should be the favored ones. The Emerson Piano Company have made and sold upward of sixty thousand pianos; and they warrant every instrument sent from their factory. They will send to any of our readers who may be thinking of purchasing a piano, their illustrated catalogue free of charge; and it will be found to be an interesting publication.
